I consider everything a loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them garbage, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, . . . I want to know Christ—yes, to know the power of his resurrection . . . Not that I have already obtained all this, . . . but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. . . . All of us, then, who are mature should take such a view of things. Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ. (1 Corinthians 11:1)

Honor one another above yourselves. (Romans 12:10)

Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position. Do not be conceited. (Romans 12:16)

Here there is no Gentile or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all, and is in all. (Colossians 3:11)
